BY ORANGE BLOSSOM. The one on earth I drarest love, le mother dear, my gentle dove; My angel love, my sweether 1 gay. Why should my heart from this love stray To Cupid's love so full of snares' tu Cridd's field sown thick with tares? While mother's love is good and true We love each other, yes, we do!

This love is not the love of fame, Of riches, station, style or nama, that love, aweelish, true and pure, Elernal, tenderr firm and sure : Origonal and white as snow, n of heaven and not below. Eureka! I have found it true-We love each other, yes, we do ! Rumantie, so-called, Cupid-love,

Of lave malernal -lave sublime, An offspring from that love of tima; A dove upon the ark of fate. With Iwa comhalants, love and hate A maanl Ararat oft in view. With olive branches good and Irue. Bear mother's love, a gentle dove, In anchored ark, the clouds above

I paw Ararot's towering height; An olive brauch of posco and might;

A happy tamily, heaven and home, And shall I ever from it roam?

No, uever, 1'll be firm and true -We love each other, yes, we do! Oh, wandering waif of Cupid's fale, Return this love, ere it's too lite. Thy mother's love for thee did burn, A kindred flame, should thou return. Love Cipid well, but mother more, Thy God, thy friends, the shining shore Let us all love so firm and true -

We love each other, yes, we do. Tarry With Mc.

Tarry with me, O, my Savior ! For the day is pussing by , See the shales of evening gather, And the night is drawing nigh.

Tarry with me, blessed Jesus, Leave me not till morning light; For I'm binely here with oil thee, Tarry with me through the night. Many friends were gathered round me,

But the grave has closed above them. And I linger here the last. Deeper, deeper grows the shadows; Paler now the glowing west; wift the night of death advances;

Shall it be the wight of reel ! Tarry with me, O, my Savior; hay my head upon thy breast Till the morning; then awake me-Muruing of ctornal rest.

other wonderful discoveries it is found to consist of elements almost in their natural state. Petro-leant old is the article which is made to work such extraordinary results; but it is after it has been chemically treated and completely decolorized that it is in proper combition for the bolist. It was in far-off Russia blait the effect of petroleum upon the hair was first observed, a Government officer haring noticed that a partially hald-headed servant of his, when trimming the lamps, had a habit of wiping his off-besineared hands in his acauty locks, and the result was in a few months a much fince head of Idack, glossy hair than he ever had before. The all was iried on horses and callle that had lost their hair from the cottle plugue, and the results were as rapid as they were marvelous. The
